

Derek Pigdon

senior urban designer.

office. +61 3 9070 1166

mobile. 0481 213 152

email. derek@meshplanning.com.au

Derek's focus is on making a positive and lasting difference to the built environment while delivering quality outcomes for the client and community.

Derek has over 10 years' experience working in the field of urban design. Derek has a degree in Architectural Science and a Diploma in Building, Design and Drafting. Derek's early career began in London working for a boutique architectural firm followed by over 5 years with the Prince's Foundation for the Built Environment. During his time at the Prince's Foundation Derek's focus was on delivering timeless places that resonate with the community, enhance local traditions, respect natural systems and foster economic prosperity.

Since returning to Australia and prior to joining Mesh, Derek worked for a developer delivering master planned communities combined with integrated, medium density housing. Derek's focus on improving the built environment and his attention to detail results in the delivery of a high quality outcome that meets the needs of both client and community.
