graduate urban designer.

office. +61 3 9070 1166

email. kate@meshplanning.com.au

Kate is a multi-disciplinary urban designer with state and local government employment history and a passion for place making.

Kate graduated with a bachelor degree of Landscape Architecture from RMIT in 2016 and in 2019 has graduated with a masters degree of Urban Planning and Design from Monash University.

Kate chose to study landscape architecture at RMIT to pursue a career in design and to explore how design can create places that are vibrant and inviting while also being able to combat and minimise environmental pressures in the urban realm.

Kate's multi-disciplinary design education has allowed her to understand design processes in the urban environment and develop an excellent creative problem-solving skillset.
